

SEAWATER II

Crew Profile

MIGUEL REYNES

Captain

Born in Mallorca, Miguel Reynes is a lover of his home, the Balearic Islands. He believes that each island has their own unique charm. With twenty years of experience, he describes himself as enthusiastic and organized captain. Miguel joined SEA WATER back in 2017.

He has a special weakness for Balearic traditional cuisine and culture.

He speaks Catalan and Spanish, but he is also skilled in English, Italian and French.

JONATHAN CASTILLO

Chef

Jonathan has joined the Seawater crew in 2019 and he enjoys every moment spent on board. With an extensive background in different cooking institutions and restaurants, he is looking forward to delight his guests with his flavoured dishes and satisfy their culinary cravings.

Jonathan has a warm and easy-going personality, his specialty being the Mediterranean cuisine, however, he can cater for all tastes.

Jonathan speaks Spanish, French, English and Catalan.

VIORELA TINCU

Stewardess/Deckhand

Well organized and responsible, Viorela is a hard working, energetic and highly motivated stewardess who aspires to provide exceptional service.

Her proven background in the hospitality industry and her meticulous approach ensure that every task on board is executed accurately and at a high-quality level.

Viorela enjoys assisting the guests and making sure they make the most out of their holidays.

She speaks Spanish, English, Romanian and Italian.
