

ALLURE

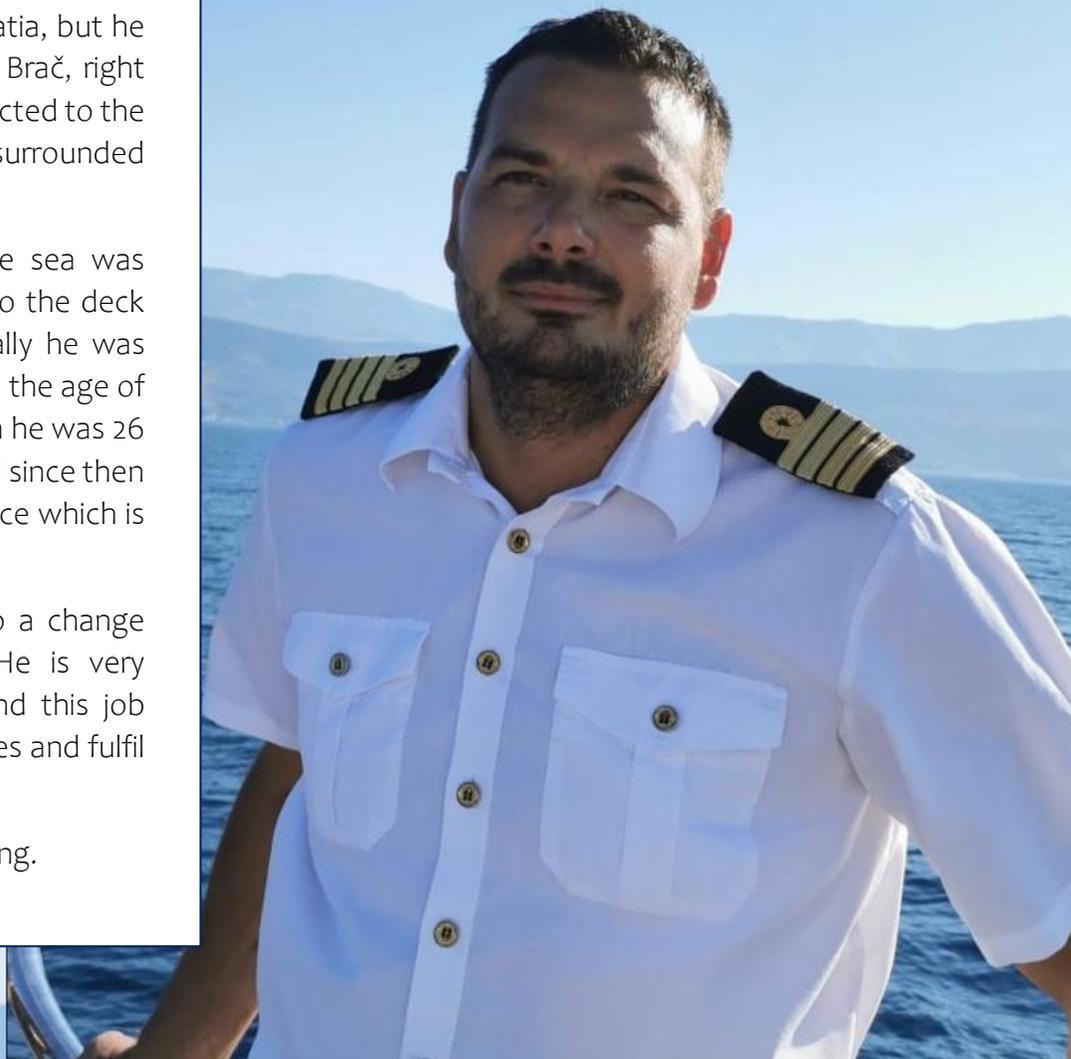

CREW PROFILE

Tomislav Šelendić was born on 1984. in Split, Croatia, but he has been living most of his life on beautiful island of Brač, right across the town of Split. This is why he has been connected to the sea from his early age as he has spent his childhood surrounded with island's untouched nature and cry of seagulls.

He learned to become a chef but love for the sea was stronger and he decided to move from the kitchen to the deck and became a deckhand on a fishing boat. Eventually he was promoted to helmsman and after a couple of years, at the age of 22 he became a captain of his own fishing boat. When he was 26 he decided to replace fishing industry with tourism and since then has been working on various ships gathering experience which is now over 14 years.

His personality is the reason why he decided to a change profession - as he enjoys working with people. He is very communicative person, always in a good mood. And this job allows him to dedicate completely to his guest's wishes and fulfil them all.

In his spare time, he enjoys big game fishing and cooking.

TOMISLAV ŠELENDIĆ - CAPTAIN

Kristina was born on April 19th, 1992. She graduated from the Faculty of Economics in Split where she has been living for the last ten years.

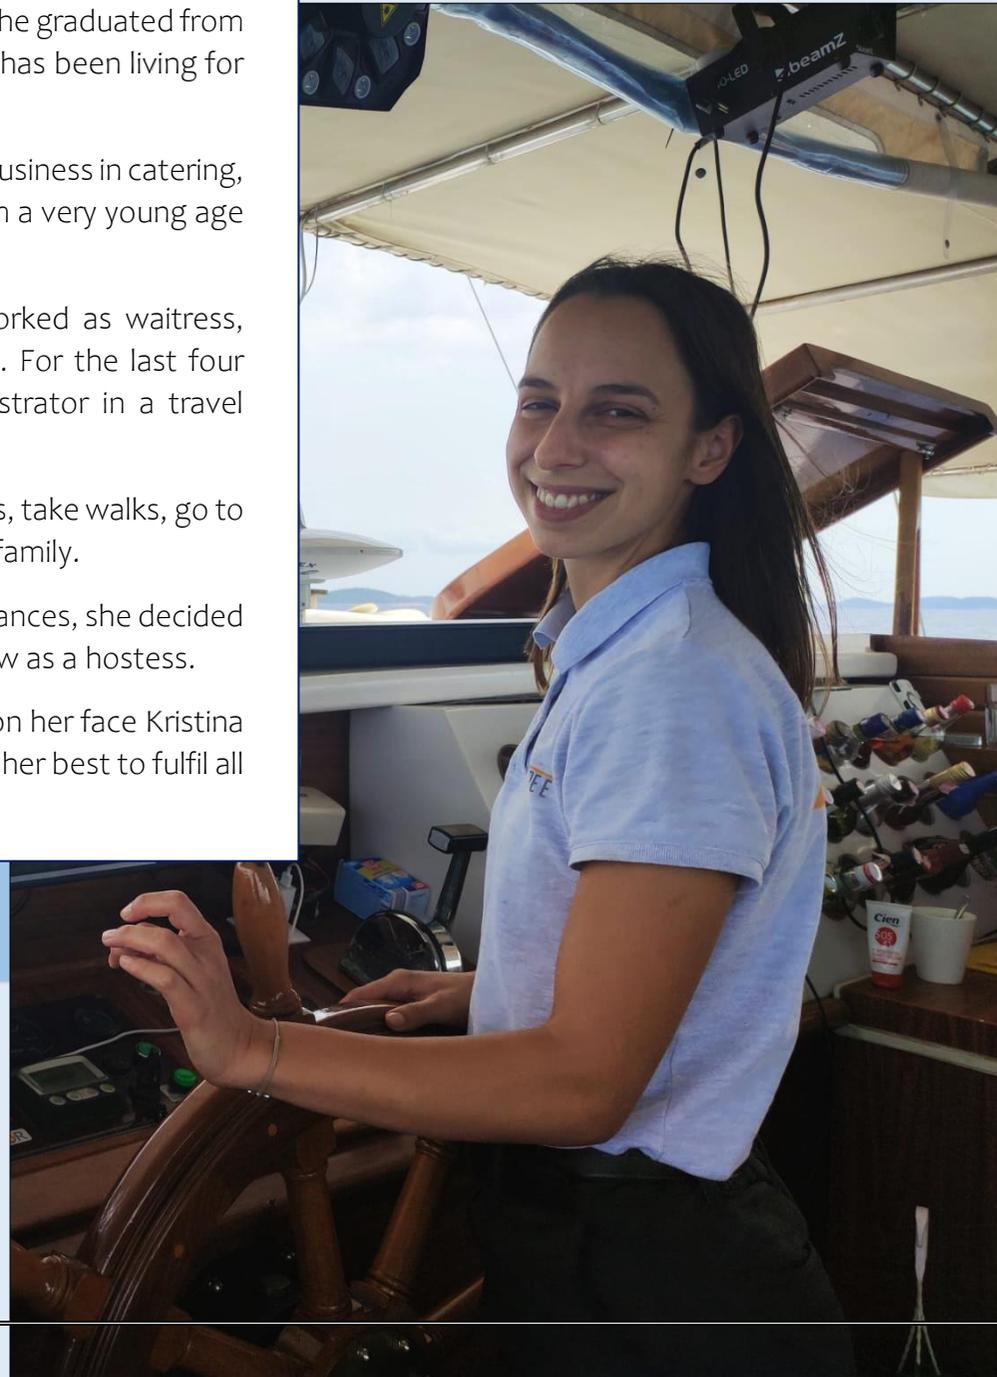

Coming from a big family with private business in catering, she was very familiar with guest service from a very young age and she is fluent in English language.

While she was studying, she also worked as waitress, sales promoter and saleswoman in a store. For the last four years she has been working as an administrator in a travel agency.

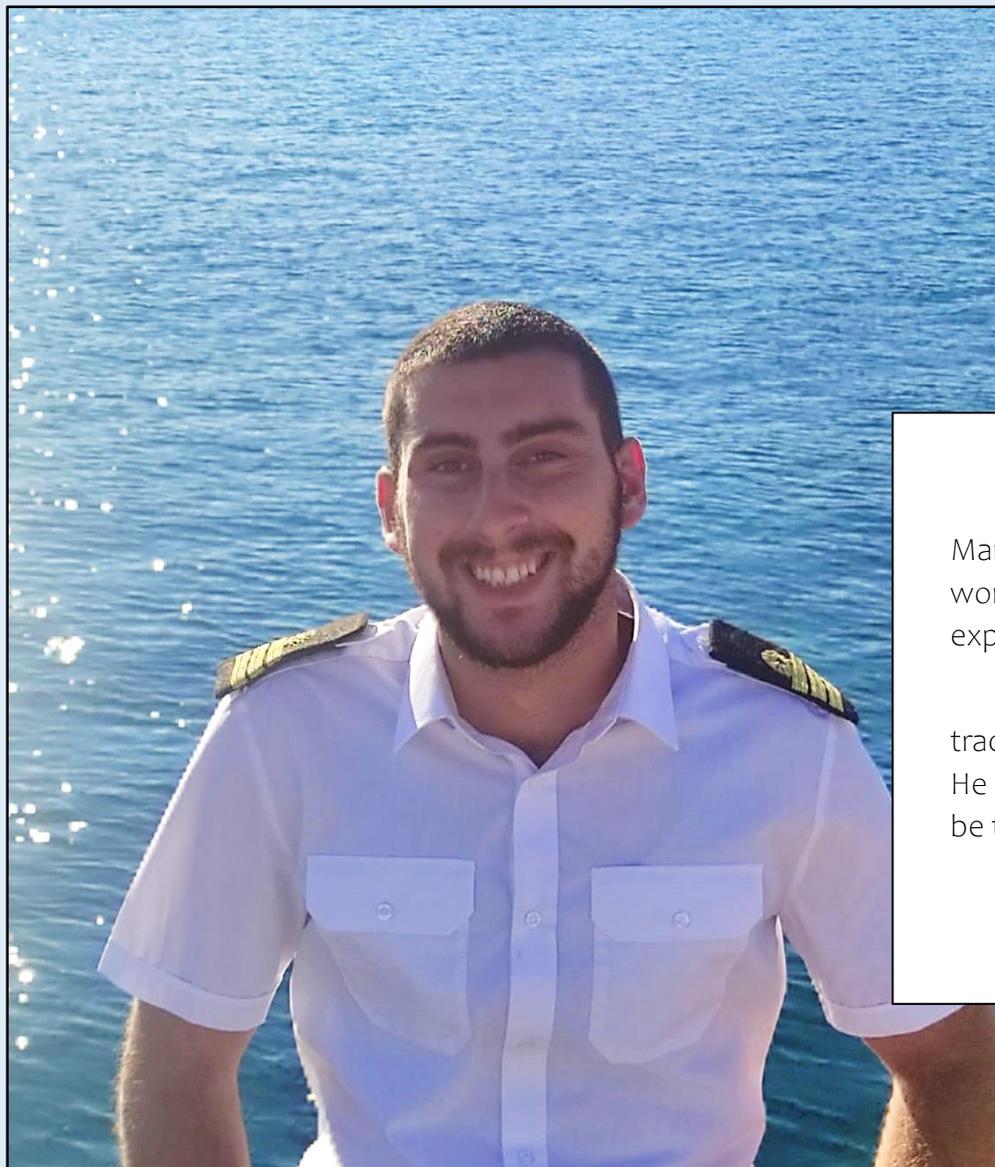

In her free time, she likes to read books, take walks, go to fitness and spend time with her friends and family.

Eager for adventure and new acquaintances, she decided to become a member of the gulet Allure crew as a hostess.

Hardworking and always with a smile on her face Kristina will welcome you with an open heart and try her best to fulfil all your needs.
