

LUXURY SAILING YACHT DALMATINO

ANDRIJA ERCEGOVIĆ-CAPTAIN (08/06/1991)

Captain Andrija was born in Split into a family with a 30-year long tradition of maritime enterprise. He spent most of his childhood helping his father and brothers on different ships owned by their family so he knew very early where he sees himself in the future, happy at sea.

Graduated from the secondary Maritime high school in Split as a nautical officer of the deck but with his eagerness to run a ship on his own, he was slowly upgraded to a Captain, with more than 8 years of experience so far.

Andrija is a very athletic person; in his free time his passions are spearfishing and free climbing. He used to play a guitar very well but he gave that hobby up in order to pursue new interests. His crew speaks very highly of him as he runs his ship professionally and diligently.

Overall, Andrija is very warm and easy-going person, which you can see for yourself if you decide to book M/S "Dalmatino" for an extraordinary Croatian cruising experience.

FILIP ZEČIĆ-DECKHAND (06/08/1994)

Filip Zečić, born in Split on August 6th, 1994 a qualified deckhand with over four years of experience in yachting. He brings professionalism and structured approach to everyday jobs on the vessel. He has been exclusively working in the yachting industry since 2017 and has much experience in hospitality and customer service as well from his previous jobs. He enjoys diverse challenges of working with a team, both on deck and on the bridge. He took on the challenges of learning the subtle skills of leadership as being someone who follows direction very well as well as being someone who can lead by example. A very friendly, calm and respectful person, Filip takes pride in being a great team player.

JAKŠA RADIĆ VRŽINA – CHEF (11/07/1992)

Jakša was born and raised in Split and from an early age has been surrounded by Mediterranean smells and tastes that later became his signature cooking style.

He started his carrier as a teenager developing basic knowledge in an a la carte restaurants on the coast and islands of Dalmatia but his curious spirit led him abroad and to charter yachts where he found himself to be most creative.

His inspiration comes from nature and seaside way of life that can be shown in the traditional cooking presented in a modern way. Enthusiastically learning new cooking techniques but because the presence of daily fresh fish his focus is more on creating dishes which include raw or minimally treated fish that keeps freshness and taste.

Jakša is friendly, open and always available to his guests for any request or suggestion about the menu as the only goal he has is having a happy and satisfied guest.

In spare time he does sports and hiking but his biggest passion alongside cooking is traveling and meeting new people and discovering new and interesting cultures.

TANJA MILAVIĆ – HOSTESS (21/08/1989)

Tanja was born in the city of Split. She finished Language education high school in Omiš, which is a small town located on the sea and known in history for pirates. That should not scare you as it is just a product of its rich culture in sailing and manufacturing of old wooden ships. She speaks fluent English and has knowledge of conversational Italian and Spanish.

She is well experienced in working on boats and is eager to serve and make each one of her guests a VIP one. Tanja is open to new experiences and getting to know new people and places which makes her an easygoing person but very dedicated to her job as a crew member on Dalmatino.

In her free time, she loves going for walks in nature with her pets, doing pilates and hiking so she truly enjoys the outdoors and has that adventurous spirit.

MARKO ŽULJEVIĆ – WAITER (14/11/1988)

Marko was born in Split where he finished his school education as an electronics technician but being born by the sea made him take a different direction in life and he started working on boats. He is experienced in his job, serving his customers in the best possible way.

People would describe him as a very communicative and an outgoing person. He speaks fluent English and if you ever need good music, he is your go-to guy, when he is not on board of Dalmatino, Marko is a DJ.

GABRIEL ALLEN IVANIŠEVIĆ – DECKHAND (13/12/2000)

Marko was born in Split where he finished his school education as an electronics technician but being born by the sea made him take a different direction in life and he started working on boats. He is experienced in his job, serving his customers in the best possible way.

People would describe him as a very communicative and an outgoing person. He speaks fluent English and if you ever need good music, he is your go-to guy, when he is not on board of Dalmatino, Marko is a DJ.